ADMINISTRATION DIRECTORATE REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Evaluation

In order to enhance the usefulness of the Trends and Highlights Course to you and future participants, a continuing process of evaluation is necessary. We ask your cooperation in assisting us in keeping the course responsive to the needs of the participants.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

The objective of the course is to update Deputy Director for Administration careerists' knowledge and understanding of current activities, problems and trends in the Directorate and its various offices.

A. Please indicate on this numerical scale how well in your estimation, the course has met its objective. (Number 1 is the lowest, number 7 is the highest.)

B. What was the most useful segment of the program to you in your present assignment? The least useful? Please describe how you see the program benefiting you.

I found the Office of Communications, Finance + Security presentations most informative and beneficial. The office of Security, TSD presentation being highly informative. The Communications presentation was impressive giving one the opportunity to actually see this vital operation. I think it provided aspects of the DIA which gave one a greater appreciation for their daily working operations.

The least useful was in my opinion, OJCS, Medical + MAG. I think these (See Reverse Side) presentations could have been better prepared.

C. Did you feel the session on the Administration Directorate/ Management & Advisory Group (AD/MAG) was beneficial? Why?

Not really. I think MAG is a management tool that works fine on paper and in theory, actual application would seem to be very difficult without exceptionality.

D. Other Comments: The Program overall was informative and very beneficial. I learned a great deal about the DD/PAZ that I previously did not know. Generally, the topics and speakers were interesting. I feel the evening session should be discontinued. Classes all day and a session in the evening is entirely too long.

If a scheduled speaker cannot attend the standards should be suspended to give a sufficient briefing. I do not feel the Office of Personnel accomplished this.

The Federal Women's Program was great!
